An ape has escaped from the city zoo! No, it's not Curious George. It's another charmer named Marvin, and he's celebrating his fifteenth year of silliness. This book was the very first collaboration for husband-and-wife team Mark and Caralyn Buehner, and their imagination and humor were already on full display. As gigantic gorilla Marvin manages to hide himself from the police on the subway, at the toy store, on the ferry, and at the ball game, the simple text and bold, funny illustrations are just right for this new board-book edition.

Great book

By thaicalder

I love the Buehner's books. They are fun to read to any age. It is especially fun to search for the hidden pictures.

Love it!

By andynjamie

My son loves this book. He started it around 18 months and still loves it at his second birthday. He loves finding the ostrich and black cat in every image.
