Excellent!

By Mo

Excellent book for those struggling with their faith.

Murray takes on a heart of a pastor and provides practical, insightful, steps and words of Scripture to help people struggling with their assurance of salvation.

In the chapters, he draws from scripture examples of people struggling with their faith and how Jesus words and promises meet them. God's character and nature is also expounded clearly throughout the chapters. The explanation of the parable of the sower is phenomenal as well!

This is truly a Spirit-inspired book, and the wisdom contained is priceless.

Of all the books I've read, this is one of the best. I cannot recommend it enough!

If you are one that questions his/her own salvation, or is plagued with doubt, or struggling to get a firm grip on the gospel, then you must read this book.

Great book no matter your level of faith.

By Kelly H

Being a student of the word for so long, at first I felt I wasn't gaining much from this book, however, I continued to read on, and realized it is marvelously written to be beneficial to everyone, no matter where you stand in your faith experience. I really enjoyed it as I read deeper into the chapters. I am a huge fan of Andrew Murray and have read at least a dozen of his books. True to form, he never disappoints!

For Seekers Only

By Lakota

Great book so far. Should be noted that it's written for people seeking to know the LORD Jesus, not just for the Christian looking to build his faith. Excellent book nonetheless.
