'Poetic eternity'

By Ilse Jamonts

Lyn Hatherly's analysis of Sappho's verse songs of the public and private lives of women in her circle in Ancient Greece was illuminating. Seeing that ancient world through a woman's eyes was exhilarating as well as leaving me saddened that so little of her works remain. But as Lyn puts it so brilliantly' ...for Sappho the manipulation of time through memory extended sweet bitter moments of love into a poetic eternity.' The meticulous approach to questions of gender approach to erotic verse expression was thoroughly explored and I find it no wonder that the women's movement claims Sappho as kindred voice.
